WINE LIST

Special Selection for this month

Whilst we have been waiting for the warmer weather to turn the corner, we have been busy trying out new wines for our list.

This month we have some fresh, bright and breezy wines from the New World and France.

White Wine

Keith Tulloch, Chardonnay, Hunter Valley, Australia, 2014 abv 13.5%
Keith Tulloch is a fourth generation Hunter Valley Winemaker, so the soils of Pokolbin and the wines of the Hunter Valley run deep in his blood.
Fully ripe fruit is sourced from old and low yielding vines, expressing concentrated citrus, pear, and pineapple characters, with elements of minerally complexity. Barrel-fermentation in new French oak adds fine vanilla richness and spice to the bouquet and flavour. £46.00

Red Wine

Fleurie, Cuvee Tradition, Domaine de la Madone, Beaujolais, 2016, abv 13.5%
The family's steep hillside vineyards are a challenge to harvest (at an angle of 30 to 40 degrees!); the brothers can't drive a tractor through their fields, as it's too dangerous—pickers have to scoot along at severe angles and struggle with a wheelbarrow as grapes are painstakingly collected at harvest. Nevertheless the result is a delicious fresh, vibrant Gamay, perfect for Spring. £39.00
